

Recommended Courses for Non-Degree Seeking Students Seeking Admission into the Program

On occasion, there are students that decide to take a few courses as a non-degree seeking student while they apply to the Counselor Education program. Below is a list of courses we recommend you take and some we recommend you don't take as non-degree seeking students that might seek admission in to the program. Once admitted to the program and you have the opportunity to meet with your advisor, he or she will advise you on an appropriate course sequence.

Recommended Courses:

- EDF 6155 Lifespan Human Development
- EDF 6481 Fund of Grad Research
- MHS 5005 Intro to Counseling Profession
- MHS 6020 Mental Health Care Systems
- MHS 6420 Counseling Special Populations
- MHS 6450 Counseling Substance Use/Abuse
- EDF 6608 Social Factors in American Education *
- RED 5147 Developmental Reading *
- EDG 6236 Principles of Instruction *
- MHS 6400 Theories of Indv Counseling

* Department of Education courses required for School Counseling certification

Courses Recommended AFTER Admission and Advisement:

- MHS 6401 Techniques of Counseling
- MHS 6480 Human Sexuality & Relationships
- MHS 6500 Group Procedures in Counseling
- MHS 6070 Diagnosis & Treatment
- SDS 6620 Organ. & Admin. of Sch Counseling
- MHS 6702 Ethical/Legal/Consultation
- SDS 6347 Career Development
- MHS 6220 Individual Psychoed Testing I
- SDS 6411 Counseling Children & Adolescents